

Barack Obama: One Student's Opinion on Our President

Nicholas Scalisi, Grade 5

Barack Obama was elected to be the forty-fourth president of the United States in 2008. Barack was born in Honolulu, Hawaii on August 4, 1961. Even though a lot of people like President Obama in office, I don't.

Here are my reasons:

I think he is spending too much money. Did you know that America is in over $14,000,000,000 or fourteen trillion dollars in debt? The tax payers and all the Pulaski students in the future will have to pay that debt off.

We need to end the war in Iraq because too many soldiers and innocent people are dying. Our hometown was affected by the war when Christopher Scherer, Mrs. Burr's nephew and a former Pulaski student, died fighting in Iraq.

These are my reasons for thinking America should elect a new president.
